

Expectations

1. Be on time! Make sure your new students know you're ready and excited to meet them
 2. Make a groupchat to plan future meetings and for them to ask questions
 3. Icebreakers! Comprehensive guide in Google Folder.
 4. Read your group and do what you think YOUR students will need
 5. Know your resources!
 6. If you don't know something, reach out to your OS/the OSC with questions
 - a. Email: orientation_cu@cornell.edu
-

First meeting (8/26) from 6-7 PM (EDT)

- Level 1 Icebreakers
 - Get to know each other
 - General Cornell questions and advice
 - COVID-19 and Behavior Compact
 - Getting involved on campus
 - Cornell Resources
 - Go over enrollment/how to build a schedule
-

Second meeting (8/29) from 6:30 - 7:30 PM (EDT)

- Level 2 Icebreakers
 - College specific questions and advice
 - Continued general Cornell questions and advice
 - Cornell Votes
-

Third meeting (9/1) between 5 -7 PM (EDT)

- Level 3 Icebreakers
 - Continued general Cornell questions and advice
 - Continued college specific questions and advice
 - Wrap up, final questions
-

If you need to change the times, please make sure to communicate with your students. Also remember to use inclusive language regarding "being on campus." Make sure that you still welcome students who are starting their Cornell journey remotely.